Elections in Canada.

All Canada has just gone through a very exciting election for Members of Parliament. The contending parties are called by the newspapers "Ministerialists" and "Opposition;" but a religious element figures prominently in the canvass, the Catholics supporting and the Protestants opposing, the Ministry. The contest has been animated, angry, and, in some localities, attended with riot and bloodshed. The grand result is not yet ascertained, though we judge from the returns thus far that the Ministry have been beaten. We append the vote in the two principal constituencies, Montreal and Toronto

MONTREAL.

Dorion,	4,686
McGee,	4,557
Rose	4,528
Starnes,	4,417
Holton,	4,409
Cartier,	4,055

Those in italics were the "Opposition" candidates, two of whom, DORION and MCGEE, were elected; the third, HOLTON, a prominent merchant of Montreal, losing his election by nine votes.—McGEE is the well-known "Irish Patriot," THOMAS D'ARCY MCGEE, formerly a resident of the United States.

In TORONTO, the vote stood thus:

BROWN, (Opposition)	2,365
ROBINSON, (Ministerialist)	2,363
BOULTON, (Opposition)	2,204

The first two elected.

THE BANE AND THE ANTIDOTE.—The News of Friday contained GOV. WALKER'S letter of recommendation and Gen. CASS' clumsy and crusty rejoinder. Of the former the News says:

Merely as an essay upon Democratic Government, though it had no necessary bearing upon any question now occupying the public mind, this letter would be eminently worthy an attentive perusal.

And then the "official" organ adds:

We do not endorse all that is contained in this letter, nor do we approve of the entire course of its distinguished author.

The reply of Gen. CASS is endorsed by the News, and his rebuke of GOV. WALKER, for presuming to assign reasons for his resignation, is commended as "dignified and eminently proper." The News is evidently "preparing to pucker."

SLYING AGAIN.—The Argus, in speaking of the indebtedness of the State:

"This state of things has been created by Republican Legislation and rule; will that party which has both branches of the next Legislature and the Governor, come to the scratch, and levy a tax which will get the State where the Constitution requires it to be, out of debt, except the $100,000 in bonds provided for, and already issued."

It says this, while in another column it publishes extracts from Secretary JONES' report, containing among the other items which go to make up this indebtedness, $21,000 robbed directly from the State Treasury during the Administration of Barstow.

It can be shown from the official records that the present indebtedness of the State is the, result of "Democratic" extravagance, and inherited from a "Democratic" administration.—Madison Journal.

VERY APPROPRIATE.—The address on laying the corner stone of the Worth Monument, in New York, was delivered by Mayor WOOD, who appointed himself to that honorable position. A copy of the address, according to custom, was deposited under the corner stone, accompanied by the New York daily papers of that date. The papers thus deposited contained the proceedings of a Tiemann meeting the evening previous, including the speech of Hon. JOHN MCKEON, the district attorney, wherein he gave to the world in general, and to posterity in particular, a brief view of the life—commercial, political and social—of the self appointed orator Wood. So dramatic an instance of complete justice is rarely met with in one's life-time.

ELECTION OF U. S. SENATORS.—The Legislature of Minnesota, in joint Convention on the 15th inst., elected HENRY M. RICE and JAMES SHIELDS, U. S. Senators from Minnesota. The Republicans voted for DANIEL COOPER and HENRY D. HUFF. The vote stood: Rice 56, Shields 51; Huff 54, and Cooper 50.

Latest from Kansas.

The St. Louis Democrat, of the 24th, brings the following:

A messenger has arrived, bringing the latest intelligence from the seat of war. He reports that there was a pitched battle between the hostile parties last evening (the 16th) five pro-slavery men were killed—among them is Dr. Blake Little, a member of the late Lecompton Convention

About twenty free state men had been taken prisoners by different parties of Missourians, and were confined in Fort Scott. At a little town just across the border, in Missouri, the Missourians had assembled in arms to the number of six hundred and were about to march over into Kansas. The free state men are thoroughly aroused, and a most determined spirit of fight prevails. Fort Scott will doubtless be razed to the ground, and its ashes scattered to the winds.

At last accounts, Clark, the instigator of the troubles, was still at large; but if he falls into the hands of free state men, his life will probably pay the penalty of his crimes. It is not known whether the executive will comply with the demand to send troops. Stanton, to whom the demand was made, has been removed, and it is not known how the new Governor, Gen. Denver, will act in the premises.

SERIOUS LOSS.—We learn by Mr. Olin, of Hobah, that the large mill dam at that place, owned by Hon. C. W. Thompson, was washed away a week ago Saturday. The dam was recently built, and supported a flour and saw mill, and other machinery. Besides the delay, and considerable damage to other parties, it will cost $3,000 to replace the dam. The loss falls heavily, in these times, upon Mr. Thompson, also upon mechanics connected with the mills. Mr. Olin lost property to the value of $600. The cause of the breach was the insufficiency of the dam.—LaCrosse Rep.

Secretary Cass to Gen. Denver.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.

Among the documents presented to the Senate, is Secretary Cass' letter to Gen. Denver.

After referring to the cause of the dismissal of Acting-Governor Stanton, in convening the Legislature, he says: "From these views you will readily understand what the President regards as the chief duty which devolves upon you, as Stanton's successor. This duty is to preserve the peace of Kansas. Every person entitled to vote on the Constitution, ought to have safe access to the polls, and to be free from all restraints whatever in the exercise of the elective franchise."

If the civil power is found insufficient for this purpose, troops of the United States should be employed in the aid of it, and it may be a wise precaution to have them stationed in advance within reach of those places where, in your judgment, their services are likely to be required. It is earnestly hoped that the use of the military power may be wholly avoided. Violence is always less likely to occur when the means are known to be at hand for its prompt suppression.

Should the military power become absolutely necessary to keep the peace, you will find full instructions with reference to the proper mode of employing it, in my communication to Governor Walker. The Territorial Legislature was doubtless convened on the 7th inst., and while it remains in session, its members are entitled to be secure and free in their deliberations. Its rightful action must also be respected.

Should it authorize an election by the people for any purpose, this election should be held without interruption, no less than those authorized by the Convention.

While the peace of the Territory is preserved, and the freedom of election is secured, there need be no fear of disastrous consequences.

The public journals contain reports of an intended movement by a portion of the residents of Kansas to organize a revolutionary government under the Topeka Constitution. It is hardly probable that this report can be well founded; but should the attempt be made and lead to a practical collision with the Territorial authorities, the authority of the government must necessarily be maintained; and from whatever quarter it is attempted to interfere by violence with the election authorized by the Constitutional Convention, or which may be authorized by the Legislature, the attempt must be resisted, and the security of the elections maintained by your firmness and discretion, to give effect to these instructions.

It is vitally important that the people of Kansas, and none others than the people of Kansas, should have the full determination of the question now before them for decision.

It is important also, that in securing to them the protection to which they are entitled, great care should be taken not to organize any illegal authority.

No action of the Territorial Legislature about to meet, can interpose with the elections of the 21st of December, and the 26th of January, in the mode and manners prescribed by the Constitutional Convention.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

LEWIS CASS.

Washington Affairs.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.

A requisition has been made upon the Treasury for $480,000 for the payment of members of Congress from the 4th of March last, under a joint resolution recently passed. Of this amount over $12,000 had already been disbursed in gold.

In addition to the Pawnee delegation of Indians, a delegation of the Ponchas from Nebraska have arrived, both on business with the Government.

The President has issued a proclamation, setting apart the 15th of February for taking the sense of the voters in the District of Columbia on the new code of laws.

The contracts for engraving the plates of the Treasury notes have been made, and the plates will be issued about two weeks later. Their denominations will be $100, $500 and $1,000.

The President, in reply to a resolution of the Senate, transmitted to that body yesterday, the correspondence which took place nearly a year ago in reference to the bombardment of Greyton. Count Sartiges, it appears, asked indemnity for actual losses sustained by French subjects, who, he says, found it physically impossible to remove their goods from the conflagration caused by the movements of the commander of the sloop of war Cyane.

Mr. Marcy in reply, informs him that the President has not been able to find the right or even the equity upon which reclamation can be sustained, and in a long dispatch expounds to him the International law.

Count Sartiges acknowledges its receipt and says that he will not fail to send Mr. Marcy's communication to the French Government. No response to the letter is embraced in the documents.

Although the resolution calling for the information included any correspondence with Great Britain, none was transmitted to the Senate.

Correspondence of the Cincinnati Gazette.

LECOMPTON, Kansas, Thursday, Dec. 17.

The following veto was received from Gov. Stanton, in the evening session of the House:

To the House of Representatives of the Territory of Kansas:

GENTLEMEN—I herewith return the bill originating in your House, entitled "an Act repealing an Act, entitled an Act to provide for taking a census, and election for delegates to a Convention.

In my communication to the two Houses, at the commencement of the present session of the Legislative Assembly, I distinctly stated my objections to the measure now presented for my approval.

Believing that the Legislative Assembly has no power to repeal the Act of organizing the late Constitutional Convention, after its functions have been executed, I cannot approve the bill for that purpose, but now return it to the House in which it originated.

FRED P. STANTON,
Acting Governor.

Lecompton, 16 Dec., 1857.

The bill was immediately passed over the veto. In the House the vote stood 29 to 1; in the Senate the vote for it was unanimous.

OUTRAGE.—We give below such particulars as we have been able to get, concerning an outrageous assault, which took place in Thomas Timlin's groggery, on Tuesday of last week.

Ole Osmausson, a Norwegian, about 50 years old, and a peaceable, well-disposed man, having been here for the purpose of trading, had started for home on the day mentioned. With him, was Ole Harrison, another Norwegian, and when they had got across the creek, by the Diamond House, they went into Timlin's to get a mug of Lager.—While drinking, Pat Hughes, an Irishman about 20 years old, and a professed fighter and bully, stepped up and demanded that Osmausson should "treat" the crowd. He refused, whereupon Hughes and others attacked him, and beat him, horribly, nearly killing him. He received several dangerous cuts from a slung shot, the most severe being over the ear, near the temple.

For several days his life was despaired of, and the report was current here for a day or two, that he was dead. So general was the belief of his death that Hughes became alarmed and left, the last that was heard of him being in Chicago.—Whitewater Reg.

A HARD HIT AT FORNEY.—Forney, of the Philadelphia Press, having struck the Richmond (Va.) South a plumper for its personal abuse of Senator Douglas, the editor of the South comes back at Forney with the following savage blow:

Mr. John W. Forney, of the Philadelphia Press, exhibits an anxiety to provoke a discussion with this paper in regard to the issues of the Kansas controversy, and with that view he chooses to reply to our criticism of Senator Douglas' position with decided warmth of temper and severity of epithet. With a positive conviction that a triumph over Mr. Forney would neither secure us any personal credit nor result in the least advantage to the interests of the South, we must decline to return the gentleman's salutation. We have abundant opportunity for discussion with editors of respectable character and have no need to descend to the level of an individual who has been convinced of an attempt to extort false testimony against a woman by a liberal supply of liquor on a drunken play-actor. If we could not find a worthy champion, we should not accept one whose name is the synonym of political dishonor.

POPULATION OF AUSTRIA.—An Austrian statistician has just published a classification of the people of that empire. The last census stated the population at 36,398,854. Of this number the dominant race yields the smallest proportion, there being less than eight millions of German subjects of the Emperor. The Sclavonic race forms the bulk of the empire, being nearly fifteen millions in number. The Asiatic tribes under Austrian rule are between five and six millions, and of these the Magyars in Hungary are the chief portion. The Austrian army which in its complete state numbers 948,000 men, is the "largest army in Europe for actual service."

CITY MATTERS.

COLLECTIONS OF THE STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY, 11th volume. MADISON, CALKINS AND WEBB, Printers.

We are indebted to Mr. DRAPER, Secretary of the State Historical Society, for a copy of this valuable work, comprising the collections of the Society, embracing over 500 pages, printed at the expense of the State. The volume is very well got up, and one which the Society can use in exchange with its sister associations in other States, without a feeling of shame. The contents are full of interest, embracing papers of various kinds, personal narratives of the early settlers, &c., &c. Among the headings of articles are the following:

Early Jesuit Missionaries in the Northwest.
Indian Tribes of Wisconsin.
The Cass Manuscripts.
Seventy-two years Recollection of Wisconsin.
Early History of Kenosha.
The Upper Wisconsin country.
Resources of North Eastern Wisconsin.

CHRISTMAS DINNER AT THE NEWHALL HOUSE.—The Banquet served up at the Newhall House, on Christmas Day, was in point of variety, excellence and abundance, unsurpassed, if not unequalled by any public entertainment that we have ever had the good fortune to attend. The guests, from two to three hundred in number, including representatives from all parts of the Union, and gentlemen who had travelled extensively in this country and in Europe, were unanimous in their praise of the cuisine. The Landlords, Messrs. KEAN & RICE, were most assiduous in ministering to the enjoyment of their large family party. The festival was a merry one, as befitted the season, and all agreed that in the NEWHALL HOUSE Milwaukee can boast of a Hotel which has no superior on this continent.

POLICE COURT, Dec. 25th.—For being drunk and disorderly, was fined $5 and costs.

Thos. Duffy, for stealing a coat, was sent up for six months.

Edward Post, disorderly, fined $8 and costs.

Henry Fess, fast driving on bridge, fined $2 and costs.

DECEMBER 26th.—Wm. Schleitzler, charged with disorderly conduct—case adjourned to 29th at 9 A. M.

Henry Wentland, Peter Stearns, and James McKnight, disorderly, fined—the first $15, the second $3, and the last $2, all with costs.

ORPHAN ASYLUM FESTIVALS.—This week the Festivals for the Orphan Asylums occur.

That for the Protestant Orphan Asylum comes off to-morrow (Tuesday) evening at the Albany Hall, and preparations are being made for a grand, and, we hope, a very successful affair.

St. Rose' Orphan Asylum (Catholic) takes its benefit at the same place on Wednesday evening, and will, doubtless, be liberally remembered.

SALE OF STOCKS, &c., IN NEW YORK, 28D.—$3,000 Madison City 7's, int. added, 51; $4,000 Milwaukee & Beloit R. R. 8's, int. added, 30; $1,000 LaCrosse & Milwaukee R. C. bonds, int added, 6; $2,000 Chicago, St. Paul & Fond du Lac R. R. 2s, int. added, 16.

CONCERT OF THE MUSICAL SOCIETY.—Our Milwaukee Musical Society give another of their attractive Concerts at Young's Hall this evening. The programme embraces a variety of gems, and lovers of good music may safely promise themselves a rich treat.

SKILFUL CHESS-PLAYING.—The Wisconsin of Saturday states that, the day before, WINFIELD SMITH, Esq., the President of the Chess Club, played several games blindfold with three of our best players, and beat them without difficulty.

NOTICE OF THE EX-COMMITTEE OF M. U. R. A.—The Collectors from the several Wards of the city, are requested to appear, and report progress, on Monday evening next, Dec. 28th, at the regular meeting held at the Central office, Main street. By order of Ex-Committee,

G. J. ROGERS, Sec'y.

DROWNED.—On Tuesday last, a little son, about five years old, of Mr. A. Brauchle, brewer in this village, was drowned in the Crawfish just above the bridge, near the brewery. The circumstances, as near as we can learn them, are as follow: Two unruly boys by the name of MEYER, one aged about nine or ten years, the other about eleven or twelve, got the little boy on the ice, which was open in the middle of the stream, and threw sticks into the water and told him to get them out, and on his refusal, and contrary to his cries and entreaties, took him by the hands and slid him in part way, and then gave him a push, the impetus of which sent him into the water, where they left him, and ran away. A female who saw the transaction, did not give the alarm immediately, but first went to her house and sent a boy to tell Mr. Brauchle that his child was in the water drowning. The father immediately rushed to the rescue; and, at the peril of his life, recovered the child, but not until life was extinct.

Query: Is there no punishment for these boys who thus apparently maliciously took away the life of this child?—Columbus Journal.

MILWAUKEE HOTELS.—In a private letter from Washington to the editor of this paper, the Hon. John F. Potter asks us to say a good word for the Newhall House, assuring us that, from Milwaukee to Washington, he found no house so well kept in all respects, nor one where, accommodations considered, the charges are as reasonable. We take pleasure in adding to this commendation, our own. We have visited the Newhall frequently since its opening. We are acquainted with the best houses in the eastern and western cities, and we think the Newhall as good as the best.

The proprietors of the Walker House and of the American also, have favored us with circulars, stating that the price of board has been reduced to $1,50 per day, at each of these hotels. We are glad to hear it, for throwing aside the "nonsense and frippery" of hotel accommodations, things for which travelers in general care but little, and $1,50 per day is amply sufficient. Both these houses are good. We have stopped at both, and were always well treated, and with the exception of one outrageous overcharge at the American, under a former landlord, reasonably charged for our sleep and provender. Any one visiting Milwaukee will find any one of these hotels good and cheap enough.—Whitewater Register.

GREAT DISCOVERY.

AMPLE TESTS, both by able practitioners and chemical analysis, have demonstrated the great value of Prof. De Grath's beautiful combination, called "ELECTRIC OIL," for the relief and cure of pain. But the people themselves are rendering their verdict in a manner both unmistakeable and satisfactory. More than twenty thousand bottles have been sold in a very short time—a great proportion to those who heard others recommend it, who had tried it. That its a splendid discovery is everywhere acknowledged, and nothing like it was ever before prepared.

The only genuine Electric Oil is Prof. De Grath's, which is to be had at all the respectable Druggists in this city, and at wholesale and retail, at the proprietor's prices, of the agent.

PROF. O. DE GRATH.

Bottles 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.

☞ For sale by Bosworth & Sons, and J. H. Tesch-Milwaukee; Fahnestock & Davis, and Reed & Co., Chicago; and by Druggists and Merchants generally throughout the country. dec25d&w1t

WORTH KNOWING.—Prof. Wood, whose advertisement will be found in another column, has discovered a remedy for the gray and bald, which is at once practicable and cheap. It requires no dying, no wig, or extraordinary trouble. There can be no doubt whatever of its efficacy. We have seen testimonials almost without number, and from men of great intelligence, high standing and moral worth.

Those who have been bald for years are now wearing their own hair, and appear ten years younger than they did six months ago. As in most cases grey hairs and bald heads are both premature and unnatural, it is a duty to remedy them by the natural and undoubted means which Prof. Wood has invented, and now kindly offers to the afflicted. Read his advertisement, try his wonderful remedy, and give the Prof. a new testimonial.—Memphis Whig.

Sold by all respectable Druggists.

COMMERCIAL.

Weekly Review of our Markets.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL, }
MILWAUKEE, Dec. 23, 1857. }

Received by M. & M. R. R., 25th and 26th—42 bbls flour, 5,820 bus wheat, 265 do rye, 60 do corn, 100 do barley, 250 do oats, 10,875 lbs hides, 10,000 lbs dressed hogs, 1,975 lbs poultry.

Received by Mill. & M. R. R.—1,637 bus wheat, 56 bbls flour.

The market during the past week has been without any features worthy of particular note, and generally dull, though some articles may be quoted a little higher. The receipts by railroad have increased somewhat. A fair amount of flour has come in by the northern roads which are bringing very little wheat. The receipts of wheat have been about 25,000 bushels, nearly all by the Mil. & Miss. and Mil. & Watertown railroads.

The La Crosse & Mil. R. R. has reached New Lisbon, in Juneau Co., and the Mil. & Miss., (southern branch,) is about completed to Monroe, in Green County. These extensions, when the produce business opens again, will add largely to the amount of business of the roads not only, but of produce sent to this market.

We find, as yet very little improvement in money matters. Collections are no difficult to make as ever, and the rates of exchange keep up to a high figure.

We annex our quotations:

FLOUR—Sales to-day extras $8,75@9,25, only two or three favorite brands bringing over $9,00—No superfine $8,50@8,60. City brands 87½@100 higher.

WHEAT—Must be quoted rather lower. Spring sold on Saturday at 86 for common, to 88@90 for good milling lots; winter at 90@80. Only the choicest samples of winter are saleable at over 75, and red and medium white not much better than spring.

RYE—Good demand for all that comes in at 55@56.

BARLEY—Dull for all qualities—inferior quite unsaleable—millers only purchase the very best white—prices are nominally 85@50.

CORN—Now in the car 35@40—old shelled is worth 50@51.

OATS—Plenty at 22@23.

POTATOES—Selling slowly at 25@31.

BUTTER—Firkin brings 16@23 for common to prime.

EGGS—Unsteady demand, selling at 16@20, according to wants of buyers.

LIVE STOCK MARKET—But little doing in Hogs and Cattle. About 40 head of cattle in market, and prices range from $2,25 to $3, and dull. Several car loads of hogs arrived on Friday, and we quote $4@4,25 live weight; $5@5,50 dressed—some choice at $5,75.

PROVISIONS—Are lower, with moderate demand:

Mess Pork $16.
Mess Beef—$9@10.
Lard—9c ₰ lb.
Hams—11c for sugar cured.
Dried Beef—12½.
Soap and Candles no change. We quote:
Soap—Palm 6c; ex-family, 7c; crusive 8c.
Candles—19@12½c.
BEANS—slow, only 75 offered.
HIDES—rather better, but dull at 2½@3 for green and 6@8 for dry.
POULTRY—The demand for the holidays brought prices up for turkeys and chickens to 9@10c.
CHEESE—New York—12½@14—Ohio 11½@12½.
COFFEE—Java 13@20—Laguayra 14@15—Maracaibo 13½@15—Rio 12@14.
FISH—Cod 5½@6—Hake 3,75@4,25—white $4,50@5,00.
FRUIT—Green apples, $2,50@3,00 per bbl—dried $2,00@2,25 ₰ bus—dried peaches 15c ₰ lb.
LEAD—Pig 7½, bar 9½, pipe 9¾@10, sheet 9¾@10, shot $2,25 per bar.
LUMBER—Common Boards and Scantling and Joist, Fencing and Siding, $14,00; Planed Flooring, $23; Clear do $30; Clear Siding, $20; 2d Clear, $15; 3d Clear Lumber $25 and Plank $50; 1st Clear Lumber and Plank, $40. Lath $6,00. Warranted Shingles, $3,50.
MOLASSES—N. O. in bbls 55@65—S. H. syrup 60@75—Belcher's Golden Syrup, in bbls and kegs 55@1,00.
OILS—White, common $1,03@1,12—bleached $1,10@1,12 W. S. Lard Oil at 1,20@122. Summer do 1,10@1,18.
SALT—$1,75@1,80 for fine, $2,00 for coarse.
SUGARS.—We quote prices at wholesale, as follows:
Small loaf 0,14¾@13; do D. R. 14; Crushed C. to D. R. 13¾@13½; Powdered, same figures; refined white C 12½; do yellow, B. to A., 11¾@12; hhd sugars 9¾@10; do good to prime 10½@11.
SOAP—No. 1 extra 5@5½; family white 6@6½; Colgate's pale, 7@8.
STARCH—Oswego and Chillicothe, 9½.
TOBACCO—Manufactured—common 15@20c; good 25@28; extra 30@45; chewing, cut, 25@35.
SEEDS—Flax, $1,25@1,37½; timothy, $1,00@1,25. Clover at $ 50.
WHISKEY—24@25.
WOOD—good sapp'y, and selling at $3,00@5,00.
HAY—market moderately supplied, and timothy selling at $13@15—wild hay 7@12.

MONEY MARKET.

BANKING AND EXCHANGE OFFICE OF BRIDGE BECKMAN, }
165 EAST WATER ST., MIL. DEC. 26, '57. }

For the last few days our city has been very quiet in all branches of trade, which at this season of the year is hardly to be expected under any pressure of financial circumstances. The weather seems to have taken a stand against us, rendering the roads almost impassable, and preventing the farmers from bringing in their grain and other products. We must, however, rest content in the hope of a favorable Spring, indications of which have already begun to present themselves. Money seems to be quite plenty at the East, and it is rather singular that more does not find its way here. There is no doubt in our minds, that after the Bank reports are made, we shall find sufficient sent here for legitimate investment.

Stocks of all kinds are on the rise in the New York market. That is of itself a favorable symptom, and together with the resumption of specie payments, and the large amounts of coin the banks have to back them, we have a right to form the opinion that soon we shall be as easy as ever.

There is quite a brisk call for money on Stocks and Bonds and Mortgages, but all are not supplied. The rate is about 9@8 ₰ ct. on long time. Land Warrants are not in much demand, but as the balance of the Iowa lands are expected soon to come into market, we anticipate a brisk call in a short time. Prices remain as here before.

Exchange has fallen off a trifle. We quote selling at ⅜ ₰ cent.

Gold selling at ¾ per cent.

We annex our usual specie list.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER PERSIA.

Important News from India!

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.

The steamer Persia, from Liverpool, 12th inst., arrived yesterday morning.

Advices have been received in England, from Bombay, to the 12th, and from Calcutta to the 11th of November.

The British reinforcements were arriving at different Indian ports at the rate of two thousand per week.

The mutineers at Lucknow were estimated from 50,000 to 70,000. No communication has been had for months; but it is believed the garrison will hold out.

Greathed's column, 5,000 strong, had reached Alumbagh, only 8 miles from Lucknow, and Colin Campbell left Cawnpore with 5,000 more on the 9th, for Lucknow.

Numerous successful encounters with mutineers, are reported, at various points.

No more outbreaks had occurred.

The King of Delhi's life will be spared.

The mutineers burnt alive all wounded sepoys, that fell into their hands at the siege of Delhi.

CHINA.—Hong Kong dates are to October 30th. Preparation were being made for the assault on Canton.

The House of Commons have appointed a special committee to examine bank charters and commercial crisis.

Lord Jno. Russell had obtained leave to bring in a Jewish disabilities bill.

Lord Palmerston proposed to adjourn on the 12th January to the 4th February.

The demand for money is gradually diminishing. Rates in discount market lower than at Bank. Funds buoyant. Several additional failures had occurred, mostly German houses.—The largest were Heine, Lemon & Co., for £700,000, and Weinholt, Wheanor & Co., for £800,000.

Farley & Co.'s Worcester Bank had stopped. It is a small affair.

The Wolverhampton Bank resumes business.

Hamburg advices are conflicting. Later despatches report the crisis more alarming, and a general outbreak imminent.

Gold was flowing plentifully into the Bank of England.

The Bank of France has also gained a large amount of specie, and a still further reduction of the rates were anticipated.

The Government granted credit of one million francs to relieve distress among the people.

An amnesty has been granted in Spain for political offences.

The panic had extended to Warsaw. Numerous failures there.

LIVERPOOL MARKET, Dec. 11.—Lard still very dull and transactions restricted—the merest retail sales at a further decline.

Tallow—A fair amount of business has taken place at the rates of our last—North American 45s@50s 6d.

Beef—Has not but little enquiry, and the sales only reach about 200 tierces, at a decline of 5s@10s a tierce. Hillman's new has realized 110s from the quay.

Pork—Nothing doing in American. Irish rather easier. Bacon very dull and almost nominal in value.

Cheese—Nor much doing—about 7000 boxes are to be offered at auction next week, which are not likely to sell except at a considerable decline.

Breadstuffs—The weather has been extremely mild for the season. The arrivals from the U. S. have been considerable, and there being but a limited enquiry for any article holders have been obliged to accept of a further reduction. The only inquiry doing for prime red and white American wheats, which are scarce. To-day's market was fairly attended, and a more general consumption demand was experienced by wheat at an improvement of 1d per 70 pounds for red American.

Flour—Somewhat more easy of sale, although the extent of business was rather circumscribed at about 6d per bbl improvement.

Corn—The demand for Indian corn was exceedingly slow at a reduction of 6d per quarter on mixed and yellow; 1@ 2s per quarter on white; fine having been sold at 29s per 480 lbs.

Wheat—We quote the value of American wheat 8s 9d @ 7s 8d; red 8s@8s 4d; extra 8s 6d@8s 10d per 70 lbs.

MILWAUKEE:

MONDAY MORNING, DEC'R 28, 1857.

The News from Kansas.

We make up the following condensed statement of the news from Kansas, from the dispatches contained in the Chicago papers of Friday morning, and from our files of the St. Louis Democrat.

The Legislature passed, on the 14th, a bill providing for the organization of the Militia of the territory. The new organization takes place under the supervision of a board of officers, consisting of one major general, eight brigadier generals, one quartermaster general, one commissary general, and one surgeon general. These officers are elected by the Legislature. The governor of the territory is a member of the board, and is commander-in-chief of the militia.

This military board has power to organize, equip, drill, and put into a serviceable shape, the militia of the territory. A majority of the board are empowered to call out the militia in any emergency, and to act independent of the commander-in-chief.

This bill was vetoed by Acting Gov. Stanton, but was immediately passed by a two-third vote, and became a law. The Legislature than proceeded to elect the following officers under it:

Major General	. . . .	J. H. Lane
First Brigadier General	. . .	J. G. Loses
Second "	. . . .	S. B. Jamison
Third "	. . . .	Asa Hall
Fourth "	. . . .	Sam. Walker.
Fifth "	. . . .	C. M. McDaniel
Sixth "	. . . .	J. H. Whistler
Seventh "	. . . .	G. S. Hillyer
Eighth "	. . . .	F. G. Cleveland
Adjutant General	. . . .	C. Chadwick
Inspector "	. . . .	J. Hill
Quartermaster "	. . . .	Hiram Hosmer
Commissary "	. . . .	L. W. Eldridge
Surgeon "	. . . .	Dr. S. B. Prentiss

The other work of the Legislature may be thus summed up:

The law of the bogus Legislature creating the Lecompton Convention was repealed.

The Militia Law passed.

Provision made for a vote of the people on the Lecompton Constitution on the 4th of January.

A law passed providing severe penalties for election frauds.

A dispatch says:

The Territorial Executive Committee have issued a call for re-assembling on the 23d. the delegate Convention held in Lawrence on the 2d inst., to take into consideration the best course to pursue in consequence of the Legislature having failed to submit the Topeka Constitution with the Lecompton instrument.

We have a dispatch dated St. Louis, Dec. 24th which says, on the authority of a letter to the Democrat:

On the evening of the 14th a battle occurred at Fort Scott between the Pro-Slavery and Free State men. Five of the former were killed, among them Blake Little, a member of the Lecompton Convention. Several were wounded on both sides. Twenty Free State men were taken prisoners and confined in the Fort. The Missourians have assembled a strong force on the border and more fighting is apprehended.

The difficulties grew out of Clark, notorious as the murderer of Barbour two years since, going about accompanied by a deputy sheriff, collecting taxes of Free State men, seizing property in default of payment, and instituting prosecutions under the rebellion law.

Another letter to the same paper says:

The trouble at Fort Scott, which is said to have resulted in the death of three men, was a local quarrel, not connected immediately with the election, although between Free State and pro-slavery men. The latter had sent to Missouri for assistance. A requisition was made on Friday by Stanton on Gen. Harney for two companies of dragoons, who were at once dispatched to Fort Scott. Gen. Lane also sent off two companies of Free State troops (territorial militia) to Fort Scott after the dragoons and see that they did no harm.

The Democrat of the last date at hand, makes up the following statement, derived from several sources, by which the cause of the trouble is more clearly understood, and by which it also appears that it was the Border Ruffians instead of the Free State men, who were compelled to surrender.

"The smouldering hostility so long pent up, is at last breaking out in the territory, and the pro-slavery men seem determined to precipitate it on the people without regard to consequences. Fort Scott is the scene where the tragedy has opened. During the last court held at that point, twenty-three free state men were indicted for rebellion, under the statutes of the bogus Legislature of 1856, which makes the crime punishable by death. Friends of the victims to this odious and bloody code, wished to have further investigation of the case, which was denied them. They then requested to see the court records, and were refused. Determined not to be treated with such arrant injustice, they claimed their right, and a squabble ensuing, they were set upon by the pro-slavery attaches of the court and a mob of their partisans. In turn, the free state men rallied to the support of their friends and compelled the assailants to surrender. The captives were then permitted to leave uninjured. Since that time they have crossed the line into Missouri, where they have raised a force, and now threaten to wreak vengeance when they got to the territory. The volunteers in this foray have principally gone from Little Osage, Papinville and Nevada, but the general sentiment of the communities do not endorse the inroad.

The President, as the recognized head of the Pro-Slavery Border Ruffians, had better "call off his dogs," for they may get hurt.

The Walker Democrats of the Territory had called a Mass Territorial Convention to meet on the 24th, to indorse his course, and recommend to Congress the passage of an enabling act. They would undoubtedly oppose the course of the Administration, as was evident from the tone of the primary meetings. Douglas's speech has not reached the Territory, but his position was understood from his private advices.

Up to the 17th Gen. Denver had not superseded Mr. Stanton.

Is Saul also Among the Prophets?

SHANNON went to Kansas as Governor. But that the demon of strong drink had gained control over him, he would have been driven to take the Free State side.

REEDER went out as Governor, but became disgusted with the business, and came back, and supported Fremont.

GEARY went out as Governor, and he was compelled by an honest sense of duty, to aid the Free State men.

WALKER went out as Governor, and was compelled to expose the rascality of the men whom he was sent to aid.

DENVER has been sent out, but instead of superseding Stanton, had not attempted in any way to interfere with him up to the 17th. "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

The New York Evening Post quotes from the Bible a somewhat similar case, and recommends Mr. Buchanan to take his place "among the prophets." The Bible story runs thus:

"And Saul sent messengers to take David: and when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing, as appointed, over them, the spirit of God was upon the messengers, and they also prophesied. And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise. And Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they prophesied also. Then went he also to Ramah, and came to a well that is in Sechu; and he asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, Behold they be at Naoith, in Ramah. And he went thither to Naoith, in Ramah, and the Spirit of God was upon him also, and he went on and prophesied, until he came to Naoith, in Ramah.—And he stripped off his clothes also, and prophesied before Samuel in like manner, and lay down naked all that day and all that night.—Wherefore they say, Is Saul also among the prophets?

Speech of Senator Doolittle, of Wisconsin.

The Anti-Commercial Construction of the Senate Committees.

Pending the question of confirming the list of Standing Committee of the U. S. Senate, reported by Mr. Allen, (adm.,) of Rhode Island, Mr. Doolittle submitted the following remarks in regard to the injustice shown the commercial interests of the West in the construction of the committees:

Senator Doolittle, of Wisconsin, who followed Mr. Hamlin, said:

In looking over the honorable names which have been suggested to fill the committee (on Commerce) I find that all these persons reside in States where it is to be supposed their interests and their sympathies would be confined almost entirely to the commerce of the Atlantic and the Gulf. I speak not of the formation of this commerce, either in its sectional aspect as between the North and the South, or between the Democratic and the Republican parties in this body.

I look upon the construction of this committee in a very different light. With the exception of the honorable Senator from Louisiana, (Mr. Benjamin,) who is named, and who, of course, must feel an interest in the commerce of the great river to a certain extent, and the Senator from Pennsylvania, (Mr. Bigler,) who may be said in certain degree, to represent the interests of River commerce, and in a very slight degree the interests of the lakes—with these exceptions, the whole commerce of the lakes and rivers, as well as the commerce of the Pacific coast, is utterly ignored.

Sir, I have been looking into this subject. A book is before me which refers to the amount of the commerce of the lakes in 1851. I beg leave to state the amount of that commerce as estimated in that year. The number of tons by measurement w s two hundred and fifty thousand nine hundred and seventy-five, and the value of the commerce transported in those vessels was $314,472,458. The value of the river commerce was estimated at $338,502,724. By looking into the book on Commerce and Navigation, which has been laid before us, I find that the amount of tonnage upon the lakes is now four hundred and fourteen thousand tons, and tonnage upon the rivers is two hundred and fifty-five thousand tons.

If the estimate which was made in 1851 of the value of the commerce be correct, and if it may be assumed as a basis upon which to estimate the present value of the present commerce of the lakes passing in those vessels, it exceeds $600,000,000—an amount almost equal to the entire imports and exports of the United States to-day. Add to this the commerce upon these inland seas and all this vast commerce upon these inland seas and rivers, as well as the commerce of the Pacific coast, is ignored almost altogether in the construction of this committee.

I beg to appeal to the majority of this body, to ask if it is right, if it be just to ignore this vast commercial interest? I appeal to them, before it be too late, to re-construct this committee in such a form that the commerce of the Pacific, as well as that of the lakes and rivers, may be represented upon this committee, as well as the commerce of the Atlantic and the Gulf.

Let me remind you Mr. President, that our relative positions may change on this subject.—When Oregon, and Kansas, and Nebraska, and Minnesota, as well as California, Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois, and all the other States which are interested in the commerce of the lakes and rivers, shall be represented on this floor, they may be prepared to speak in a voice too potential here to use the language of appeal. Yes, sir, as certain as the revolutions of the earth, the sceptre of dominion, even here, will pass into the hands of Young America. When that day comes, I hope and trust that it will be in the hands of those who will know no North, no South, no East, no West, but the country and the whole country, the commerce of the Atlantic and of the Gulf, of the Pacific, of the rivers, and of the great lakes and of the continent. I trust that when the power passes into their hands, if an appeal should be made to their magnanimity, that appeal will not be made in vain.

How to Crush the "Little Giant."

A correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune, signing himself "Dead Rabbit," suggests to Mr. Buchanan a plan for crushing Douglas:

1. Let the Little Giant be fastened to his seat in the Senate Chamber, with his head bent down and his legs under his desk, in such a manner as to make it impossible for him to rise; and let all weapons be taken from him if he has any.

2. Let Mr. Keitt of South Carolina, provide himself with a heavy club, a bowie-knife and a revolver.

3. Let Mr. Keitt be furnished with a body-guard, consisting of two Members of Congress (one from South Carolina and one from Virginia) armed to the teeth.

4. Let Mr. Keitt, with his body guard, be admitted into the Senate Chamber, and let the body guard keep near enough to him to save him from all possible danger.

5. Let Mr. Keitt obivalrously, but cautiously creep up to the Little Giant and beat him senseless with his club. Let the beating be continued for a few minutes upon the head of the Little Giant after he shall have fallen upon the floor, so that he may be fully "subdued."

The plan, if thoroughly carried out, would be practical, chivalric, safe—(this point Mr. Keitt will appreciate)—and effectual. It would relieve Mr. Buchanan from much trouble—would be heartily applauded by Fernando Wood, and the rest of the democratic party, and would undoubtedly "Save the Union."

The case would be rendered still more like the Sumner outrage, if it is provided that some Senator shall, as Douglas did in that case, decline to interfere, "lest his motives might be misconstrued."

Japan.

A Russian Minister has lately visited Japan—A correspondent of the London Times says the Minister, whom he represents as a very intelligent person, expresses the opinion that the great jealousy and dread of any intercourse with foreigners, which has been so distinguishing a characteristic of the Japanese government, is gradually giving way. The last accounts from Hakodadi received, via San Francisco, were of a character to confirm the opinion expressed by the Russian Plenipotentiary. Every disposition was exhibited by the Japanese officials to give friendly entertainment to the American whalers visiting that port, which, from its convenient situation, was likely to become one of the principal depots of the whaling fleet.

The steamer which the Japanese obtained from the Dutch is navigated—so the Russian Plenipotentiary reports—by an entire Japanese crew, engineers and firemen included.

ENORMOUS IMPORTATIONS OF BREADSTUFFS INTO IRELAND.—The Cork Reporter states there is plenty of food in the harbor, but no one to buy it. There are on shipboard, seeking purchasers, the enormous quantity of 8,596 tons of wheat, 9,188 tons of Indian corn, 3,078 tons barley, and 869 tons oats, besides immense quantities of beans, rice, sugar, fruit, and other articles of household consumption. And further, great consignments of the same excellent commodities are known to be on their way to the same port.

RIPON AND WOLF RIVER R. R.—The Ripon Times says:

We understand from a friend in town that the Ripon and Wolf River R. R. is now graded to Omro, with the exception of a mile or two, and most of the ties ready for being laid.

The work upon this valuable feeder to the Horicon R. R. has been carried on through these hard times by the people along the line, who have nobly persevered, under very discouraging circumstances.

GOVERNMENT SHIN-PLASTERS.—Mr. Lovejoy, of Illinois, Republican, in the course of his remarks against the Treasury Note Bill in the House of Representatives, said:

The bill proposed what is called a loan, but in reality it designs converting the Government into a great shin-plaster machine, to fill the country with irredeemable paper money, which has always been professedly distasteful to the Democracy. The generous soul of Democracy has left that carcass, and has entered and now animates the true Jeffersonian Democracy, the Republican party. He supposed that the plates for the Treasury notes were already prepared, with a likeness of the President at one end, and that of the Secretary of the Treasury at the other, with the motto, "Thanks to the Sub-Treasury, the Government has not failed." [Laughter.]—He urged various objections against the bill, contending that there was no necessity for a loan.—He wanted to build the Government on the rock of hard money, for paper representing dollar for dollar. He charged on the Sham Democracy, and warned the people of the attempt now being made by it to convert the country into a despotism, and the Treasury Department into a National Bank. The President was gradually sliding into it, and when he fully succeeds, the Democracy will swear that they always favored a Bank.

Interesting Details from India.

Calcutta (Oct. 28.) Correspondence of the London Times

The two divisions of the Lucknow force have, it seems, certainly, effected a junction, and General Outram has now therefore some 2,300 men with him in the Residency. This force is strong enough to defy any native enemy, but it is doubtful if it is sufficiently provisioned. A desperate attack on the Queen's palace, headed by Outram himself, seems to have been repulsed, and the British force now remains for the moment inactive. Round them lie immense bands of armed Sepoys and pessantry, numbering in the aggregate at least 40,000 men. With one exception, every landholder in the Southern Oude has declared against the British, not from any dislike, for the same men saved British officers; but from a desire to share the spoils of a falling dynasty. If General Outram has or can obtain provisions he may hold out for a time; if not, he must cut his way to Cawnpore sword in hand, with, I fear, frightful loss. Colonel Greathead has gone to Agra again. Thence he proceeds to Mynpoorie, and so to Cawnpore.

TRIAL AND EXECUTION OF THE PRINCES.
From the London Times.

PALACE DELHI, Thursday, Oct. 15.

The ex-King, who is living in a small house within the palace walls, is to be brought to trial in a few days for aiding and abetting the mutineers. Living with him is his wife Zeenut Mahal, and her son, Jumna Bukht, a lad of about 17 or 18 years old. Two of the King's sons, the Princes Mirza Bucktawur Shah and Mirza Mendhoo, were tried last week for aiding and abetting the mutineers. One of them was appointed Colonel of the 11th Native Infantry, and the other of the 74th. They were tried by a military commission of five officers, with Brigadier General Chamberlain as President. Evidence was produced before the Court, principally documentary consisting of reports, returns, &c., bearing the prisoners' seals, showing that they exercised command of their regiments and acted. In their defence they pleaded total ignorance of the intention of the Sepoys to mutiny, and said that when the Meerut mutineers first reached Delhi, on the 11th of May, they (the Princes) thought it was a Russian invading army. They were then summoned to an audience by the King, and in a few days after were appointed Colonels of regiments, at the request of the Sepoys themselves.

The Court, however, found the prisoners guilty, and sentenced them to death, and accordingly, yesterday they were shot by a party of the 60th Rifles. Detachments of Rifles, Artillery, Sappers and Goorkhas were present, and a great number of spectators. The bodies were cast into the Jumna River.

CAPTURE AND SHOOTING OF TWO OF THE KING OF DELHI'S SONS.
From the London Times, Dec. 1.

On the day of the capture of the old King, Lt. Hodson was sent out to endeavor to secure the Princes, greater, because more active, villains than their father. He started with Macdowal (second only to his commanding officer in all soldierly qualities) and one hundred men for the tomb of the Emperor Humayoon, where the rascals were concealed. He took measures to cut off all access to or egress from the building, and then sent in one of the legitimate scions of royalty (who had saved his own life by turning King's evidence) and the one-eyed Mulvie, Rujub Ali, (one of the lamented Sir Henry Lawrence's most trusted emissaries) to bring out the Princes.

After more than two hours of anxiety, strategy, and no small practice of the arts of offence and defence, they appeared, and were immediately sent off in a "shylie," under a small guard, towards the city. Hodson then, with the remainder of his men, entered the enciente of the tomb, and found certainly not less than from 5,000 to 6,000 of the scum of the city and palace congregated there, armed with weapons and missiles of all descriptions. It was, indeed, an hour of trial, when a bold front and a determined voice were of more avail than even a sharp sword. Wonderful to say, not a man of the gallant little band was hit, and on Hodson sternly reiterating his demand for instant surrender, they began to lay down their arms. Five hundred swords, and twice that number of fire-arms, besides horses, elephants, &c., were collected in less than an hour and a half without another blow being struck. Hodson and his men then moved warily off to the city. At a short distance from the walls they found the "bythe" was halted with much rabble collected around, who turned on the little party as they rode on.

This was no time for hesitation or delay.—Hodson dashed at once into the midst—in a few but energetic words explained "that these were the men who had not only rebelled against the Government, but had ordered and witnessed the massacres and shameful exposure of innocent women and children; and that, therefore, the Government punished such traitors taken in open resistance"—shooting them down at the word. The effect was instantaneous and wonderful.—Not another hand was raised, not another weapon leveled, and the Mahomedans of the troop, and some influential Moulvies among the bystanders, exclaimed as if by simultaneous impulse, "Well and rightly done. Their crime has met with its just penalty. These were they who gave the signal for the death of helpless women and children, and outraged decency by the exposure of their persons, and now a righteous judgment has fallen upon them. God is great." The remaining weapons were then laid down, and the crowd slowly and quietly dispersed. The bodies were then carried into the city and thrown out on the very spot where the blood of their innocent victims still stained the earth. They remained there till the 24th, when, for salutary reasons, they were removed from the Chibootra in front of the Kotwalee. The effect of this just retribution is as miraculous on the populace as it was deserved by the criminals.

The popular wish now is that "Hodson, the avenger of blood," should be sent with a strong force at his back to find and execute the like justice on the archvillain Nena Sahib. May they both receive the reward of their deeds.

A Man Over the Genesee Falls.

From the Rochester Democrat of Monday.

The cry of "a man overboard!" at sea, in the night, never fell with more startling effect upon the ear than did the announcement on Saturday, that one of our well known citizens had fallen into the swollen river and been carried quickly over the high falls. Mr. Nathan Newhafer was crossing Andrews street bridge, about 12 o'clock, in company with Mr. Rosenfield, his brother-in-law, and Mr. Marks. The bridge has been torn away excepting a portion of the north side-walk.—Near the eastern shore, the flooring is entirely removed, and planks are placed across the beams, for the convenience of the workmen employed in erecting the new iron bridge. Upon these people persist in passing, although attempts have been made to prevent it. Mr. Newhafer and his companions had reached the end of the side-walk, and stepped upon the loose planks, when his feet slipped and he fell into the stream. The water is now unusually high, and the current very rapid. The unfortunate man was borne swiftly downward, crying for help, which it was impossible to render him. After floating down the stream several rods, he attempted to swim toward the western shore; but could not long battle with the resistless current, and was carried over the dam, under the rail road bridge between the eastern abutment and first pier, and swept quickly over the fall. His fate was of course unavoidable, and his terror-stricken friends, with whom he had been cheerfully conversing a few moments before, and who attempted the crossing on his assurance of its entire safety, could only bear the astounding tidings to his relatives.

Mr. Newhafer has resided in this city some twelve years, was a native of Wurtemburge Germany, and about 42 years of age. He leaves a wife and four young children. Mrs. Newhafer is in a delicate situation, and the news has very seriously affected her. It is the testimony of the friends of the deceased, that few men have lived more comfortably or more happy in all domestic relations than he. He was possessed of a small property, but was diligent and successful in business. Last winter he was first door-keeper of the Assembly, at Albany,—an office to which he hoped to be re appointed next month.

He was President of the Jewish Synagogue in this city; also of a German Lodge of Odd Fellows; and his intelligence and public spirit gave him prominence among his countrymen.

The Jewish Fraternity at once authorized Coroner Quin to make active search for the body, and it will probably soon be recovered.

A reward of $100 has been offered for the recovery of the body of Mr. Newhafer.

FAIR WARNING.—The Washington Union speaks to Douglas, Walker & Co. after this fashion:

"Those who deny the legality and validity of the act calling the Lecompton Convention, or of the Convention itself, or of its proceedings and results, and stand out in resistance of this legitimate exercise of popular sovereignty, are guilty of a serious political offence which can never be excused or justified by an abuse of the doctrine of popular sovereignty. If we are correct in the meaning we attach to this doctrine, it follows that the President and those who support him on the Kansas question are carrying out faithfully the principle of the Democratic party on the subject of Territorial popular sovereignty. Democrats who oppose the Administration on this subject should pause and ask themselves, 'Whither are we going?'"

☞ Blobbs says that the "grab bag" system carried on at ladies' fairs, where a shilling "a grab," is charged for the highest prize valued two cents, always reminds him of the shrewd colored individual, who issued $4,75 in shinplasters, payable when presented in sums of five dollars.—That darkey should be made a Bank Director.

THE MODEL WIFE FOR 1857.—Punch thus describes the model wife as at present illustrated in English Drawing Rooms:

She dwells in fair Belgravia's halls,
Secret fashion's peerless Queen,
And all her soul, in fetes and balls,
Is in her Crinoline.

Her "Japan," like the Nuremberg globe,
Crem rne did slightly see,
Plac ng its inflated gauzy robe,
Or schirt tempestuously.

And thus expanding more or more,
She fluctuates in her walk,
Subduing Swan and Edgar's corps
With undulating talk.

Her husband's purse is small—but no!
What though her form be slim—
Her upon still expands,—and oh!
The difference to him.

The Committees of Congress—Sectionalism.

The Washington correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat says;

If anything could place in a stronger light, the universally acknowledged fact of the dominancy of the south in the government of this country, it would be a comparison of some committees in both branches of Congress. Davis, of Mississippi, supported by three southern senators—Fitzpatrick, Johnson and Iverson—governs the committee on military affairs in the Senate, Broderic, Wilson and King, constituting the opposition minority. Quitman, of Mississippi, supported by four southern representatives—Faulkner, Marshall, Savage and Bonham—governs the committee on military affairs in the House, the opposition minority consisting of Stanton, Curtis, Pendleton and Buffington. The fillibuster secessionists of Mississippi, have in a certain measure, control of the army of the United States. In like manner, there are four southern men on the judiciary committee in the Senate, exclusive of a northern democrat, and five southern men on the judiciary committee in the House, a southern majority in each case, the Senate committees consisting of seven, and the House committees of nine members, and in both committees the chairmen are southern men. In the House, Clingman, of North Carolina, is chairman of the committee on foreign affairs; in the Senate, Mason, of Virginia, occupies the same place. In the House, Bocock, of Virginia, is at the head of naval affairs; in the Senate, Mallory, of Florida, fills the same position. When the places which are now filled by Campbell, of Ohio, and Banks, of Massachussetts, in the committee on ways and means, are made vacant by the ousting of the one, and the resignation of the other, their place will be filled by southern men, which will increase their numbers to six in a committee of nine. There are four southern senators on the corresponding committee in the Senate—the committee on finance—and at their head is Hunter, a man scarcely less objectionable than Davis. We seem to dread a sectional government as a dreadful misfortune which may befall us in the future, not perceiving that we are now under a government thoroughly sectional in all its branches—a government which thinly veils its sectarianism and tyranny in the forms and phrases of democracy, just as the second Cæsar shrouded his despotism in the riches and symbols of the epublic which he destroy ed.

DEAD BODY FOUND—A CASE OF ASSASSINATION.—We stated in our paper of last evening, that a dead body of a man had been found on the march, back of the Water Cure.

The body was found near the point where the road to the water-cure intersects the railroad. It was that of a German, apparently a laborer, and a large, muscular, powerful man. He was evidently assassinated. The body is stabbed in various places. Several large gashes were inflicted in the neck and about the heart, and others in the abdomen, letting the entrails partially out. A prayer-book, in the German language was found in one of his pockets, and a letter in the same language, from Baltimore, requesting the payment of some money.

The body has been placed in a coffin, and was exhibited on the side-walk, on Webster St., near the Valhalla saloon, this afternoon. As yet no one has recognized it.

The officers are on the lookout for the murderer.—Madison Journal 24th.

REDUCTION IN THE PRICE OF THE
BADGER STATE SAFES!

NOT TO BE SURPASSED in any respect by any safe manufactory in the whole country, we have just completed our arrangements for manufacturing the

BADGER STATE SAFES,

Upon a larger scale than we have ever done heretofore by the introduction of new machinery, and by increasing our manufacturing facilities.

FIRE & BURGLAR PROOF!

Our SAFES, as is well known, are more substantially constructed, and more handsomely finished than any other safe manufactured in America, and consequently it has cost us more in getting up our safes than any other manufacturing establishment in the country. But, notwithstanding this, we are now enabled to offer our safes to the public at

AS LOW PRICES!

As any other safes manufactured. The following are the former and present prices of some of our safes:—

No. 1 Badger Safe, present price,	$135,	former,	$120.

"Unhappy Ireland" no longer.

One of the Dublin papers thus raises a shout of grateful exultation over the present condition of Ireland:

"We can hardly be grateful enough for the high position our own Ireland holds. Here no banks have stopped payment—no, by wisely resisting trade, they are paying unheard of dividends. No manufacturing establishments have failed, throwing out of employment numerous hands. The storm reached us, and passed over, leaving us unscathed. Possibly, as we are deprived of the profits resulting from gigantic factories, so also are we free from the fluctuations. Probably the terrible lesson which our country learned at so fearful a price in former visitations wrought their effect, and we are wiser and better men. Thanks be to God, our harvests were great. What trade we have is steady; our people have abundant work; the necessaries of life are cheap. We are informed that thousands of our peasantry who left our famine-stricken land some years ago, are threatening to return. Let them come, they will be welcome. We shall find work for all. Glad, only too glad shall we be if in the Western land they sought, and now fly from, they have learned industry and prudence.

The Mediterranean Cable.

The completion of the lines of the Mediterranean Telegraph Company had been effected by the successful laying of the cable between Malta and Corfu.

The operation of laying the submarine cable, says the Monitieur, which is to connect the coast of Sardinia with the Isle of Malta, has been successfully completed. The Elba, which carried the cable towed by the Blazer steamer, and accompanied by the Desperate corvette, reached Malta on the 17th of November, and cable was fixed on land on the night of the 18th, at the bottom of St. George's Bay, five miles from Valetta.

The Railroad through to New Lisbon.

Day before yesterday, the cars on the La Crosse & Milwaukee Railroad, reached New Lisbon, Juneau county, 50 miles west of this city. Messrs. Chamberlain, the contractors, have thus fairly redeemed their pledge to complete the track to that point before the 1st of January.

Judge Schermerhorn, of Juneau County, who was a passenger in the first train down yesterday morning, informs us that the new road from New Lisbon, through Necedah, to Grand Rapids, Wood County, is now open, thus bringing the travel to and from the heart of the Pineries, to the La Crosse Railroad.

Times are lively at New Lisbon. The Railroad depot, 50 by 120, is completed, and the Messrs. Bentley, of the "Veoder House" in this city, have opened their new hotel, (the "Bentley House") which is already overrun with travellers.—Portage City Badger State.

STAGE COACH UPSET.—We regret to learn that the La Crosse stage upset about 9 miles west of this place, last Thursday night. The stage was loaded with passengers, some of whom were considerably injured. A gentleman by the name of Morris, from St. Paul, was among the unfortunate, having his left clavicat broken, and was otherwise injured. Dr. Secor was immediately called, dressed the wounds, and administered the necessary medical assistance to the sufferers.—New Lisbon Rep.

☞ The schooner Union came into our harbor on Tuesday morning with a cargo of wood. Her sails were covered about two inches with snow and ice.—Kenosha Trib. 24th.

CALEB WALL'S ADV'TS

CITY AUCTION ROOM.

City Auction Room.

GREAT and grand sale of three thousand dollars worth of superior Furniture. The sale to take place at the city Land Office, on Michigan street, oppos te the Newhall House. The reason why I have the sale at the City and Office is because the room is large, pleasant and comfortable, so that Ladies can attend and I have worth from $60 to $100; 3 Chamber Sets, in colors; 6 new style Black Walnut Bureaus; 6 fine style Cherry Bureaus, 6 do Dressing Bureaus, 6 Enameled Wash Stands, 6 Spring Beds, 12 assorted Table Stands, 6 Curbs, 6 Hanging Corner Stands, Book Racks, variety of Chairs, Rocking Chairs, 6 new style Mahogany Bureaus, 8 do do do do, 8 do Tetes-a-Tetes, 2 sets Mahogany Chairs, 2 do Sofas, 6 do Easy Chairs, 4 do Centre Tables, 8 do Card Tables, 1 do Work Table, &c., &c.

Together with sundry other articles all of which can be seen the day before the sale. The said Goods are all from New York, and the party owning them has concluded not to furnish a house this winter, and therefore great bargains may be expected. Ladies will please attend the auction, and will also see the Furniture the day before the sale. dec19 CALEB WALL.

City Auction Room.

I GAVE NOTICE through our papers last week, that I had a large stock of Dry Goods from N. York, from Sixth Avenue, No. 625, corner of Fourth Street, but from no one else but from New York, and no other place; and as regards the goods, there are not many fancy ones; so much the better. They are plain, substantial goods, which we all want every day in our families. The goods are now all opened and the store on the west side of the river, formerly occupied by J. L. Pierce, where they will remain for thirty or sixty days. It is no use for me to mince what they are worth at retail there, although I have as much right to do so as I please, as any one else has to do as he pleases. I have heard that several of our merchants complain that I am injuring the trade by selling goods to peddlers. I would say to those merchants that the goods are all sold for, and if they will come and purchase them of me at a reduced price, I will give them credit, provided they can give me good paper, endorsed for any reasonable wealth; or I will sell the entire stock out, which amounts to twenty thousand dollars, on the following terms: One-tenth cash in three months—balance in one, two or three years, with seven per cent interest, secured by a mortgage on property in our city. But I shall continue to retail the goods until they are all sold, and I would say to all of our citizens to go and get great bargains. There is every kind of goods you want at thirty per cent less than ever sold in this city before. Mr. Ayres has the entire charge of the said goods. I attend to all auction business at the old corner, and will give that strict attention I always have done. Any one having stocks of goods to sell, I am ready at all times to purchase the same. Call on me.

CALEB WALL, City Auctioneer. dec8

City Auction Room.

I WANT to purchase twenty thousand to thirty thousand dollars worth of Dry Goods, in the following way: One quarter cash, balance in good city property, or I will pay all cash if I can agree on prices; or I will exchange good goods out of my store for Stocks or School Lands. Any one who is tired of trade, and wishes to give up and retire to private life, call on me and I will buy you out. My object is to do good trade, and keep the same. Or, if any one wants to sell his stock of Goods at auction, I will advance him from one-fourth to one-third its worth on said Goods. I will advance on all kinds of Goods, Notes, &c., &c., but said Goods will be sold in ten days after the advance, or the parties can, if they wish, redeem by paying the Commission. All I want is to make money out of me and keep the balance in myself. I also want it understood that I am ready to do all auction business entrusted to my care. Only, I would also say that the great stock of Goods which has been selling on the west side of the river, at half price, that I have concluded to keep the store open for thirty days longer. The crowd is so great and Goods so cheap that I think it my duty to give all a chance to get great bargains. Recollect it is in the store room formerly occupied by J. L. Pierce, on west side of the river. CALEB WALL. dec19

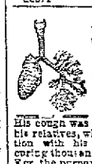
A RETIRED PHYSICIAN



HAS a positive remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, Nervous Debility and all Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervousness, Premature Decay, Want of Energy, Loss of Memory, and all those painful diseases arising from the indiscretion of youth, which ultimately lead to premature old age. Having been entrusted with a prescription by the Rev. John Ward, a missionary of many years standing in the East Indies, during which time he had ample opportunity of testing its virtues in the above diseases, and having used it in his own practice with the most astonishing success, he feels it his duty to make it known to his fellow sufferers. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send the prescription to those who desire it, free of charge, with full directions for preparing and using the same. Sufferers, do not delay, but write at once and test the virtues of this remedy. Address, with stamp, naming this paper, DR. WARD, No. 2 Nassau street, New York City. dec19 d&w3m

His cough was cured immediately; he returned, cured his relatives, who labored the disease and in connection with his son have employed in their practice curing thousands of cases considered hopeless by others For the purpose of rescuing as many of his suffering fellow beings as possible, he is sending the receipt to all who will inclose 10 cents; 2 of it to pay the postage and the balance printing. Address DR. HEATH, No. 101 Spring Street, opposite St. Nicholas Hotel, New York.

N. B.—In compliance with the urgent request of patients, my son Dr. Heath, will be at the Walker House, Milwaukee, Dec. 23d and 27th inclusive.

He will examine the throat, lungs, &c., give advice free of charge and he prepared to furnish the Professor's Great Japanese cure for falling medicine, the "Extract of Alcornique Japana" (Consumption Plant) for $5 the package—with the names of thousands who have been cured.

Assignee's Sale of Mill Property IN WAUSAU.

THE undersigned, Assignee of L. Doolittle, will sell at public auction, at the office of WELLS & BRIGHAM, in the city of Milwaukee, on Thursday, the 31st day of December, 1857, at 1 o'clock P. M., and the interest of said Doolittle in the mill in Wausau, lately run by him, known as the "Waldrod Mill." The premises consist of one upright mill, one edger, and an undivided half of the "Bull Wheel," with the privileges in common with the other mills at Wausau, of booms, piers, guard-locks, &c. The premises are in good repair, and capable of cutting fifteen thousand feet of lumber per day. Connected with the mill are ample grounds for piling; also, dwelling house, out houses, &c., and an undivided fourth of "Waldrod's Island," so called. The premises will be sold subject to a Mortgage of about $5,000. For further particulars, enquire of Wm. H. KENNEDY, at Wausau, or of the subscriber in Milwaukee.

LESSONS IN Foreign Languages.
MR. AND MRS. L. S. B. DE CERNY, from Paris, for four years past Instructors in Foreign Languages in Milwaukee, have the honor to inform the public that they will form classes in the French, Italian and Spanish Languages on the following terms:
The course of instruction will be according to the age and intelligence of the pupils, and the classes kept entirely separate, their house being arranged with that view.
Gentlemen and ladies desiring to acquire a knowledge of these languages, can receive lessons in Reading and Conversation, Mr. DE CERNY furnishing books of the best French authors. Those too wishing to learn vocal music in either of these languages, will find a competent musical teacher in the establishment.
The hours of instruction will be from 8 to 11 o'clock A. M., and from 2 to 5 P. M. And in the evening from half past 7 to 8, for conversation.
Mr. DE CERNY will also give lessons in French, Spanish and Italian, at his office, to gentlemen only, from 7 to 10 o'clock in the evening, or also to gentlemen preferring, the use of the Sword, and all military exercises. Persons of delicate constitution and feeble temperament, also those confined to their offices and engaged in sedentary pursuits, will derive from these exercises, improvement in their health, acquire strength in their limbs and find an agreeable recreation.
Mr. DE CERNY will also form similar classes for children, from 10 to 16 years old, at his house, or office, as parents may prefer. Mothers and mothers who desire to see their children strong, active and robust, can judge for themselves, after a few weeks trial, as to the effect of these different exercises upon their health.
The continued patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.
To MERCHANTS.—Mr. DE CERNY will take charge of French correspondence to all the principal cities of France and will procure all Price Currents that they may want.
